

Carteret County Human Resources Department

All new hires to Carteret County will be required to attend New Employee Orientation (NEO) within the first pay period of their start date. This includes all new or rehired full-time, part-time and temporary employees. This orientation will include information from Human Resources, Payroll, Safety/Wellness and IT. The NEO will:

- Provide new hires with information and resources that support success in their new position;
- Train new hires on important topics, such as workplace safety, timesheet completion, use of County equipment, and policy review;
- Complete new employee paperwork requirements; and
- Assist eligible new hires with the completion of their benefits elections.

Orientation sessions will be held at the General Services Building and will begin at 8:30AM. Non benefit-eligible employees will not be required to attend the entire session and should report to his/her immediate supervisor after the orientation, if applicable. Benefit-eligible employees will continue the orientation.

Also, we are requiring that all PAFs for new hires be returned by 5:00PM the Wednesday after each orientation.
